

Drawing of a Chimney Surround

Date

c. 1820

Medium

pencil, ink, and ink washes on paper

Description

The drawing is a plan for a chimney surround with four draping floral decorations across the top rail and female figures on the left and right. The figure at the left holds a lyre; the figure at the right holds a mask. The center of the surround is filled entirely with a dark ink wash. There is a dark ink outline delineating the sight size.
