Basic Detail Report

Untitled

Date

1868

Primary Maker

Edmund Gill

Medium

oil on canvas

Description

The image features a large waterfall at the center of the image. The fast-flowing water is flanked by large rock formations. The background presents a mountain range and sky. The river with its rapids flows toward the viewer to create the foreground. The painting is distinguished by the skill of the artist to capture the drama, beauty and power of moving water [Charles C. McCracken, ISA-AM, D. Ed.].

Dimensions

Image: 16 3/8  $\times$  12 1/16 inches (41.6  $\times$  30.6 cm) Framed: 23 3/4  $\times$  19 3/4  $\times$  2 13/16 inches (60.3  $\times$  50.2  $\times$  7.1 cm)