

Basic Detail Report

Landscape with Water Buffalo

Date
c.1885

Primary Maker
Julian Walbridge Rix

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

A painting depicting a marshy river landscape with overall gray tone. The river moves across the entire bottom of the canvas, turning up and to the center from the bottom left corner. The right half of the image is dominated by gray-barked trees. On grassy land at left center stand three water buffalo. At center is an area of wheat-colored marsh grass and a tree fallen across the water, with a thick covering of green moss.

Dimensions

Framed: 28 3/4 × 52 inches (73 × 132.1 cm)