Description

A painting depicting a landscape with stone bridge crossing a rocky river. The river recedes from the bottom edge of the canvas to the bridge in the middle foreground. A figure with a satchel-on-a-stick stands on the right end of the bridge adjacent to a group of overgrown trees which fill the right third of the canvas. There are cows on the hill behind the bridge and a white cottage with smoking red chimney among another group of trees. Two purple mountains rise in the background.
