

Still Life with Silver Pitcher, Asters, and Pears

Date

c. 1920s

Primary Maker

Henriette Amiard Oberteuffer

Medium

Pastel on paper

Description

Two-sided drawing. One side is a still life composed of a plate of yellow and green pears on a reddish-brown plate, with more green and yellow pears alongside, next to a silver pitcher filled with white and pink asters with green leaves, all on a surface covered with a white cloth with yellow stripes, against a background with a poster with a landscape. The other side is a reclining man in a brown jacket reading.

Dimensions

Framed: 28 1/2 × 24 inches (72.4 × 61 cm)