

Basic Detail Report

---

Luncheon Fork

Date

c. 1850

Primary Maker

George M. Griffen (active c. 1845-1858)

Medium

silver

Description

One of three silver luncheon forks with four tines and handles with rounded ends with slight midrib. Handles have raised Greek honeysuckle at top, raised wide double threads at center, and double-threads forming C-scrolls at end. Ends of handles have raised leaf at upper section and forming ends of scrolls above midrib at end. Back of handles have double threads around edges and forming C-scrolls around ends. Engraved with "W" monogram in script on back of handle ends.

Dimensions

6 1/2 inches (16.5 cm)