Date

1952

Primary Maker

Pablo Picasso

Medium

ceramic, created from white earthenware clay, decoration in oxides, knife engraved on white enamel

Description

Piche a glace (ice pitcher). Irregularly shaped ceramic with blue and white glaze. One side opens with a large circle projecting out of a tube, the other side projects out like a bulb, then slopes to a small circular opening. A handle sits between the two projections. One side of the jug has a few small scratches in the glaze, the other side has a similar scratch - they look like ears.
