

Basic Detail Report

Plate

Date

c. 1744 - 1827

Primary Maker

Imperial & Royal Porcelain Manufactory

Medium

Porcelain

Description

One of twelve octagonal plates with a sculptural figure inside an ovoid roundel crowned with a red bow and garland in the center of the plate. Around the edge of the plate is a gold band with green ovals enclosing a dotted band of gold. In the corners of the octagon are a three-leafed form of vegetation with a gold dotted band extending between each plant. The central motif is comprised of a female figure in contrapposto wearing a long gown holding fabric aloft in both hands with her head turned to her right.

Dimensions

7/8 × 10 1/8 inches (2.2 × 25.7 cm)