Date

2019

Primary Maker

Chul Hyun Ahn

Medium

Plywood, fluorescent lights, mirrors

Description

This work from Ahn's Forked series is a square, light box sculpture in which the artists has placed four mirrors at different angles and carefully aligned two tubes, blue and warm white containing small fluorescent tube lights. The lights and mirrors are covered by a one way mirror which is transparent to the viewer and reflects the light back onto the internal mirrors, creating the illusion of bands of warm and cool light extending into infinite space branching off in four directions.
