Description

Bronze sculpture of a young nude female. She stands smiling in a playful attitude on a round base symmetrically decorated with four seated, outward facing frogs and a lily pad leaf motif. The frogs have small pipes inside their open mouths leading to a fountain connection in the base interior. The toes of the girl's proper right foot are at the smooth raised center of the base. The toes of the proper left foot reach as if to touch the back of one of the frogs. The proper right arm is held behind her, hand at hip height, palm downward. The proper left arm is bent double, hand at shoulder height, palm forward.
