Basic Detail Report

Rolling His Own

Date

1924

Primary Maker

Mahonri Macintosh Young

Medium

Bronze

Description

Bronze Sculpture of Cowboy rolling a cigarette. Mahonri Young was the grandson of Mormon leader Brigham Young and is best know for his works depicting religious subjects. Following a 1912 trip to Arizona, he created many sculptures of Native Americans and cowboys.

Dimensions

 $13 \ 1/8 \times 5 \ 1/2 \times 3 \ 1/2 \ inches (33.3 \times 14 \times 8.9 \ cm)$