

Basic Detail Report

---

The Willows Landscape

Date

before 1937

Primary Maker

Benjamin Eggleston

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

An oil painting of a figure standing by a creek or marsh in tall grasses bathed in golden sunlight, across the shore are three tall willow trees. In the distance is a forest in the back and on the proper right in shadow from the glow of a rising or setting sun against a partially cloudy sky.

Dimensions

Framed: 12 1/4 × 16 1/8 inches (31.1 × 41 cm)