

Basic Detail Report

Honoring the Past – Hair tradition comes from West African Savannah to the Savannah of the American South

Date

1997

Primary Maker

Maria von Matthiessen

Medium

color print

Description

A color photograph of two African-American women sitting in the marsh, one with her hair in pigtailed buns with silver cuffs and the other wearing facial paint and a green grass-like hat.

Dimensions

Sight: 9 11/16 × 18 1/4 inches (24.6 × 46.4 cm)