

Praxiteles

Date

1890

Primary Maker

Carl Brandt

Medium

oil on canvas

Description

In this painting, there is a brown-haired man with a moustache and beard in red robe seated on stone chair, head in profile; he holds a chisel in his proper left hand and a hammer in the other. There is a nude female statue, seen from behind, at left and a gold curtain draped across cord behind her. There is also a pink rose is on the pedestal.

Dimensions

Canvas: 108 × 56 inches (274.3 × 142.2 cm)